

Christine Theroux, Agency Training Director
MetLife Financial Group Of Massachusetts

Biography

Christine A. Theroux, CFP®

Christine A. Theroux, is the Training Director for the MetLife Financial Group of Massachusetts. She has been in the financial services industry for the past fifteen years and has held management positions in the Mutual Fund and Banking Industries for nationally known companies.

Over the years, Christine has carefully developed working relationships with other industry professionals in the areas of employee/employer group benefits, tax savings* and estate planning* in order to bring a full range of services to her clients. She is backed by a team of diverse professionals and a company committed to long-term growth and development. These characteristics help provide clients with a level of objectivity and resources necessary for sound and comprehensive planning.

Ms. Theroux holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from Pennsylvania State University and studied for her CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ certification at Boston University where she served as an instructor in its CFP® Program for six years. Christine has participated on the CFP® Board's 1998 National Certification Examination Question Writing Committee which consisted of CFP® practitioners and academics from around the country who have recognized knowledge and experience in the area of personal financial planning. She is also a member of The Financial Planning Association of Greater Boston and serves on the Board of Directors.

*CFP® and CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ are certification marks owned by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. These marks are awarded to individuals who successfully complete the CFP Board's initial and ongoing certification requirements. MSI financial planners do not provide tax and legal advice. Seek the guidance of your professional tax and/or legal advisors before making any decisions.